

PRIVACY STATEMENT

Our Commitment

Our commitment is to provide you with vehicle financing and other quality financial products and services. We obtain and, use and share information about you to do so. We appreciate and respect the trust you show in providing information to us. We value our relationship with you, and therefore, explaining to you how we collect, use, disclose, and protect personal information and, with your consent, inform you of financial products and services you may be interested in is important to us.

Why We Collect Personal Information

We collect personal information to identify you, confirm facts about you, help us assess requests for financial products and services, deliver financial products and services to you and assess your eligibility for, and inform you of, financial products and services you may be interested in.

Personal Information We Collect

We collect personal information from a variety of sources, such as:

- Information you, or others on your behalf, provide on applications, mobile applications, social media platforms, such as Facebook and Twitter, and other forms, including identifying information such as name, address, telephone number, electronic addresses, such as email addresses, and social insurance number and credit related information, such as your assets, income, and liabilities.
- Information from your dealings and relationships with us, motor vehicle dealers and others, such as vehicle and vehicle financing information, services provided to you, and how you perform on your outstanding credit obligations.
- Information from consumer reporting agencies such as credit history and creditworthiness.

Obtaining Consent

To honour your request for financial products and services, we collect, use and disclose your personal information with your consent or otherwise as permitted or required by law, including to:

- Administer your account including related audit, quality assurance and risk management.
- Maintain accurate credit information about you even after your finance or lease contract with us has terminated.
- Contact you about your finance or lease contract or vehicle.
- Assess your eligibility for, and offer you, automotive or financial services products that may be of interest to you, follow up with you to determine satisfaction with your sales experience and/or products and services relating to your finance or lease contract or vehicle, and evaluate your credit, even after your finance or lease contract has terminated. You may withdraw your consent to our use of personal information for these purposes at any time by contacting us as described below.
- Send you electronic communications (e.g. emails and text messages) relating to our products, services, offers, customer surveys and events, if you have consented to receive such electronic communications (which consent may be withdrawn at any time by contacting us as described below or by using the unsubscribe mechanism provided in such messages, if any).
- Transfer information obtained about you through the credit application process or relating to your finance or lease contract with us to any third party to which your account may be transferred, provided the purpose for use and disclosure of the information is unchanged.
- Share your contact and vehicle information with our affiliates and motor vehicle dealers to offer automotive or financial products or services that may be of interest to you (as described in more detail below).

Your consent to the collection, use and disclosure of your personal information may be expressly or implicitly given, or may be obtained where notice has been provided to you about our intentions with respect to your personal information and you have not withdrawn your consent for an identified purpose, such as by using an “opt-out” option provided, if any. For example, we may obtain your express or opt-out consent when you complete our credit application, electronically or through an authorized representative. Consent may be implied when you provide personal information that is necessary for a service you have requested.

How We Share Personal Information

In order to provide you with the services you request and with other valuable financial products and services, we share personal information with third parties such as agents and authorized service providers. This sharing allows us to service accounts; provide the services or products requested; report our experiences; protect our business against fraud and unauthorized transactions; respond to governmental requests and regulatory requirements.

We may share personal information with the following types of companies:

- Financial service providers and non-financial companies who provide services for us or on our behalf, such as companies that prepare account invoices or statements.
- Motor vehicle dealers and affiliates to help us service accounts, promote and market our products, provide computer and systems support and other services.
- Others, such as independent contractors or suppliers.

Unrelated companies receiving personal information from us for the purposes described above enter into agreements with us to protect the information they receive before information is provided. These agreements also limit the use of the information to providing services we request.

Some or all of the personal information referred to above may be processed or held by our corporate affiliates in the United States and/or our corporate affiliates in India for the following purposes:

- administering your account or credit application, including related audit, quality assurance and risk management purposes;
- updating your account and contact information; and
- identifying automotive or financial services products that may be of interest to you.

We may also share personal information with motor vehicle dealers and affiliates, including your contact information and information about your finance or lease contract, so that these dealers and affiliates may offer you automotive or financial services products that may be of interest to you and follow up with you to determine satisfaction with your sales experience and/or products and services relating to your finance or lease contract or vehicle. You may withdraw your consent to our sharing of personal information for these at any time by contacting us as described below.

Monitoring of Telephone Calls

When you call our Customer Service Centre or when we call you, it is our general practice to monitor and/or record such calls for record keeping, quality monitoring and staff training purposes.
